The county auditor shall apply the deduction for the assessment date and for the assessment date in any later year in which the homestead remains eligible for the deduction. A homestead that qualifies for the deduction under this section as provided in this subsection is considered a homestead for purposes of section 37.5 [supplemental deduction] of this chapter and IC 6-1.1-20.6 [1% tax cap]. The county auditor shall cancel the deduction under this section for any property that is located in the county and is listed on the statement filed by the individual under subdivision (4). - Amends IC 6-1.1-12.1-4.1 as follows:
This subsection applies to deductions approved before July 1, 2013, for the redevelopment or rehabilitation of property located in economic revitalization areas that are residentially distressed areas. Subject to section 15 of this chapter, the amount of the deduction that a property owner is entitled to receive under section 3 of this chapter for a particular year equals the lesser of:

- (1) within ninety (90) days after the Department receives the public utility company's amended statement, if the public utility company does not file an appeal from the amended assessed valuation of the distributable property; or

Notwithstanding any other law, an amended assessed valuation or a certification of an amended assessed valuation of a public utility company's distributable property for 2012 under this SECTION may be used only to calculate the credit due to the public utility company under this SECTION and may not be used to impose any tax on the public utility company. The Department shall notify an affected county assessor and county auditor in writing that the amended assessed valuation determined under this SECTION:

- 1) Fees and other costs incurred by the county auditor to discover property that is eligible for a standard homestead deduction or a homestead credit.
- 2) Other expenses of the office of the county auditor.
- 3) The cost of preparing, sending, and processing notices described in IC 6-1.1-22-8.1(b)(9).

- This presentation and other Department of Local Government Finance materials are not a substitute for the law! This is not legal advice, just an informative presentation. The Indiana Code always governs.
- Most importantly, if you're not sure about something, ask first! DLGF will do its best to answer your questions. If the DLGF can't help, it will either refer you to the right agency or to your county attorney. Don't rely on rumors or third party information.
